Margery Allingham's

Mysterious Knits

Kate Davies

Margery Allingham was one of the undoubted queens of British detective fiction's Golden Age, and this bringing together of novel-inspired handknits with critical, contextual essays offers an in-the-round celebration of her work. The collection speaks to the detective author's inventive spirit: a single, unbroken strand of yarn transforms itself into a three-dimensional slipper; hats and pullovers are knitted from side to side, while a triangular shawl up-ends itself to eventually become a cardigan. The techniques are all contemporary, but there's a nod to classic twentieth-century knitting style as well: narrow garter-stitch stripes meet modern short row shaping, while slipped stitches and Art Deco chevrons are incorporated into light knits that will work in many wardrobes. Contributors: Tom Barr, Caroline Crampton, Kate Davies, Veronica Horwell, Julia Jones, Sarah Mackay, Imogen Robertson.

Knit It Out

12 Knitting Patterns with More than 30 Variations

Laerke Bagger

Laerke Bagger presents a collection of hip, stylish patterns and a powerful reflection on the healing power of knitting. One of Europe's most popular and talented young textile stars is also a vocal proponent of knitting as therapy. Woven throughout these personal essays are a number of chic and quirky new patterns including the Inner Child sweater, the Let It All Hang Out scarf and Laerke's version of the Scandinavian classic, which she calls the Family sweater. She shows how to adapt each pattern for a child, and-in a delightful tribute to her own obsession for a Barbie doll as well. She offers support for knitters on their own journeys of self-acceptance: tips for embracing imperfection, clever project-saving strategies and the encouragement to experiment.
